1.Preamble

This notice explains what information we process when we collect it and how we use it. During the course of our activities, we will process personal data (which may be held on paper, electronically, or otherwise) about you and we recognise the need to treat it in an appropriate and lawful manner. The purpose of this notice is to make you aware of how we will process your personal data.

2.Introduction

The purpose of this privacy notice is to explain to you the reasons why we may hold and use your personal data and explain your rights under the current data protection laws, in relation to your usage of our website. This privacy notice explains how we collect and use personal information about website users and contractors and suppliers.

Separate versions of Privacy Notices are issued to our Tenants, Customers, Staff and Board Members.

Your personal information will be processed by:

Dunbritton Housing Association of: 1 Hatters Lane, Dumbarton, G82 1AW

We are registered as a data controller with the Information Commissioner's Office ('ICO') and our registered number is Z7205348.

6. If you do not wish to provide your personal data

You have obligations under your contract / potential contract with us to provide the us with the necessary data. If you do not provide this information, this will hinder the Association's ability to enter into or maintain a contract with you.

7. Who do we share your personal information with?

We may disclose your personal data to any of our employees, officers, contractors, insurers, professional advisors, agents, suppliers or subcontractors, selected third parties, government agencies and regulators and healthcare providers so far as reasonably necessary, and in accordance with data protection legislation.

We may also disclose your personal data:

- with your consent.
- to the extent that we are required to do so by law.
- to protect the rights, property and safety of us, our customers, users of our website and other persons.
- in connection with any ongoing or prospective proceedings.
- if we are investigating a complaint, information may be disclosed to solicitors, independent investigators, including auditors, the Scottish Housing Regulator,

- and other regulatory bodies, whether investigating the complaint or otherwise.
- to the purchaser (or prospective purchaser) of any business or asset that we are, or are contemplating, selling.
 - to another organisation if we enter into a joint venture or merge with another organisation.
 - to organisations providing benefits advice and support.
 - to Police Scotland and the local authority in relation to complaints involving anti-social or other criminal behaviour.

8.What are the legal bases for us processing your personal data?

We will only process your personal data on one or more of the following legal bases:

- contract.
- Consent.
- our legitimate interests (including CCTV imagery).
- vital interests.
- public interest / official authority.
- legal obligation.

9. Processing special category personal data

Special categories of personal data means information about your racial or ethnic origin; political opinions; religious or philosophical beliefs; trade union membership; health; sex life or sexual orientation; criminal convictions, offences, or alleged offences; genetic data; or biometric data for the purposes of uniquely identifying you.

The special categories of personal information referred to above require higher levels of protection. We need to meet additional legal requirements for collecting, storing, and using this type of personal information.

10.Where do we keep your data?

Your information will only be stored within the United Kingdom except where international transfers are authorised by law.

11.How long do we keep your personal information?

We review our data retention periods regularly and will only hold your personal data for as long as is necessary for the relevant activity, or as required by law and in accordance with our Data Retention Policy and Schedule.

12.How do we keep your personal information secure?

The security of your personal information is of paramount importance to us, and we use appropriate technical and organisational measures to safeguard your personal information.

However, while we will use reasonable efforts to safeguard your personal information, the use of the Internet is not entirely secure and, for this reason, we cannot guarantee the security of any personal information that is transferred by or to you via the Internet. If you have any concerns about the security of your personal information, please contact our Data Protection Officer ('DPO') for more information.

13. Your rights

You have the right at any time to exercise your data subjects' rights in relation to the following:

- the right to be informed.
- the right to access.
- the right to rectification.
- the right to object to processing.
- rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling.
- the right to be forgotten.
- the right to data portability.
- the rights to restrict processing.

When you make a request, we are required to verify your identity and may ask you for specific information to fulfil this purpose. Normally, you will not need to pay a fee when you make any of the above requests, but we may charge a reasonable fee or refuse to comply if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. If you wish to exercise your right to access your information, or any other right, please contact our Data Protection Officer ('DPO') for more information.

It is important that the personal information that we collect, hold, and use about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed of any changes by contacting our assigned DPO.

14. Queries and Complaints

We seek to directly resolve any queries or complaints about how we handle information and would request that they be directed, in the first instance, to admin@dunbritton.org.uk or by telephoning 01389-761486.

Our Data Protection Officer is provided by RGDP LLP and can be contacted either via 0131 222 3239 or info@rgdp.co.uk

You also have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office in relation to our use of your information. The Information Commissioner's contact details are noted below:
